HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS HAVE CURED a Desperate Wound in the Log.—Patrick Leinster, residing near Carrick en Shannon, injured his leg about two years ago with a plough, which caused a most formidable wound, which spread over the leg to a most alarming extent, so that he could not put his foot to the ground, and, in despite of all his efforts, and the various remedies he used, it would not heal. In this very bad state, he applied some of Holloway's ointment to it, and regularly took the pills; this treatment had such an effect on the wound that in little more than a mouth his leg was perfectly cured. Sold by all the venders of meticines throughout the British empire, and by those of the United States, at 37 % cents, 88 cents, and $1 50 per hox. THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMpanion—by Dr. A. M. Mauriceau, Professor of Diseases of Women. Twentieth edition, Idmo, pp. 253, Price 51. Years of suffering, of physical and mestal anguish, to many an affectionate wife, and pocuniary difficulties to the husband, might have been spared by a timely possession of this work. It is intended especially for the married, or those contemplating marriage, as it discloses important secrets which should be known to them particularly.

Here, also, every female—the wife, the mother—the one either budding into womanhood, or the other in the decline of years, in whom nature contemplates an important change, can discover the causes, symptoms, and the most efficient remedies, and the most certain mode eure, in every complaint to which her sex is subject. Dr. A. M. MAURICAU, 129 Liberty street.

My Dear Sir—My wife has been perceptibly sinking for some three years or more, in consequence of her great anguish and suffering some months before and during her confinement—every successive one more and more debitating and prestrating her, putting her life in imminent danger, and which was, on the last occasion, depaired of. I supposed this state of things was inevitable, and resigned myself to meet the worst. At this time, (new about two months.) I heard your book highly spoken of, as containing some matters reaching my ease. On its receipt and perusal, I cannot express to you the relief it afforded my distressed mind, and the joy its pages imported to my wife, on learning that the great discovery of M. M. Dacomeaux provided a remody. It opened a prospect to me which I Ritle conceived was possible. But for this, ere another year would have passed over my head, in all human probability my wife would have been in her grave, and my observed the publishing o
